With the Men

SAYS MAJ.-GEN. WOOD

Admits That Many Women and Children
Were Killed in the Battle With Moro Last Week--Island Is Now Quiet.

Manila, March 13.—Major-General Wood, who has returned here after the battle of Mount Dajo, on the island of Jolo, where several hundred natives were exterminated by the American troops, today talked about the fight with the Moros. General Wood admitted that native women and children were killed in the engagement, and while he deplored the fact he said it was unavoidable because the women would fight side by side with the men, and Moro children were used as shields by the warriors. The Moros in the fight were absolute fanatics. Even the men of the ambulance corps who tried to minister to the injured, were in danger. The natives would feign death and when the ambulance men would approach them they would spring up and try to slash the Americans with knives. The majority of the casualties among the U. S. troops, according to General Wood, were caused by spears and knives. It was impossible to save any of the Moros after the fight began because they absolutely scorned surrender and many of them fought the surgeons after they had been placed on the operating table.

The island is now quiet.

MAINE CITIZENS
REVOLT AT POLLSRepublican Machine in Augusta Overthrown Yesterday and More Victories for the Anti-Sturges Law Followers.

Portland, Me., March 13.—Maine Democrats, who are not in fact many Republicans who are not voting on the Sturges law, yesterday of the Republican municipal control of Augusta for the first time since 1892, and the retention of the Democratic control of Bangor, which was gained last year for the first time in fifty years.

City elections also were held at Brewer, Biddeford and Belfast. There was but one nominee, a Republican, in Brewer and Biddeford. The result in Belfast, where there had been a lively campaign, was not known last night for the reason that all communication by wire was interrupted by the storm and the city stores. At Biddeford the machine was broken, the citizens' ticket winning.

Col. Frederick W. Plaisted was elected mayor of Augusta, the state capital and home of Congressman Burleigh, by 410 votes over Charles E. Dunnington, the Republican candidate, and his party carried seven of the eight wards for aldermen, councilmen and minor officers. Bangor Republicans in their fight to regain the mayoralty, won by William B. Peirce a year ago, nominated F. O. Beal, who has been mayor nearly a half score of times, but he was defeated by Mayor Peirce, who was given a plurality of 555. In addition, Democratic aldermen were chosen in five of the seven wards and Democratic councilmen in three wards, giving them a majority in the aldermanic board and a tie in joint convention, with the mayor to break it in their favor.

Mayor Hadley C. Clapp was re-elected mayor of Brewer by the Republicans without opposition, and Gilman P. Little, a Republican, nominated by citizens and endorsed by Republicans, was chosen to the executive chair at Biddeford with a Citizens-Republican city government. The Democrats made no nominations there.

The success of Democratic tickets yesterday, following those of last Monday, when Democratic mayors were elected in six out of eleven cities, including Rockland, the home of Governor Cobb and Congressmen Little and Tillinghast, to the control of the Democrats for the first time in its history, and those of last December, when Portland and Westbrook elected Democratic mayors, are said to be due to revolt against the Sturges-Cobb liquor enforcement law passed by the last legislature.

EIGHT TONS EXPLODED.

Dynamite Does Much Damage at Duluth, Minn.

Duluth, Minn., March 13.—Eight tons of dynamite at the compressor plant of the Great Northern Power company, exploded last evening, demolishing a large portion of the works now under construction, and injuring a number of men. The force of the explosion was felt for forty miles.

A CONSERVATIVE.

But He Takes Seat of Another Conservative, So No Change

London, March 13.—The election in the Hastings division of Hampshire has resulted in the election of the conservative candidate, Mr. Salter. The election makes no change in the seat as a conservative held it before.

Dropped into River, Drowned.

Boston, March 13.—Daniel Elberry, a fisherman employed by the New England Telephone and Telegraph company, was drowned yesterday while repairing lines disarranged by last week's storm. Elberry fell from a pole on the Maiden bridge into the Myrtle river. Before the man could be rescued he was extinct.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE
CHAMPION DEADSusan B. Anthony Passed Away at Her Home in Rochester, N. Y., Early
This Morning—An Eventful Life.

Rochester, N. Y., March 13.—The long and eventful life of Susan B. Anthony closed at 12:40 o'clock this morning. The end came peacefully. Miss Anthony had been unconscious practically all of the time for more than 24 hours and her death had been almost momentarily expected since Sunday night. Only her wonderful constitution kept her alive.

Dr. M. S. Ricker, her attending physician, said: "Miss Anthony died of heart failure, induced by pneumonia of both lungs. She had had serious valvular heart trouble for the last six or seven years. Her lungs were practically clear and the pneumonia had yielded to treatment, but the weakness of her heart prevented her recovery."

Until very recently Miss Anthony was as vigorous as any time in her career and traveled abroad last year with little appearance of fatigue. With the exception of Julia Ward Howe, she was the sole survivor of the early suffrage advocates who took part in the movement inaugurated at the famous convention held in Seneca Falls in 1848, which was the first woman's rights convention. The laws for the equal property rights of women were first advocated there. Miss Anthony was said almost every reform which she advocated had been accomplished with the exception of the right of suffrage. She was one of the first advocates of co-education and dress reform. She adopted the bloomer costume in 1852 and clung to it a little more than a year. She said later in life that she found it a physical comfort but a mental crucifixion.

She also carried her interest in the advancement of women into the practical affairs of everyday life. She always assisted the woman in business when she could. Her photographs sent all over the country were taken by a woman photographer. She was attended throughout her illness by a woman physician. In her relation with the Rochester newspapers she never gave an item to a man when the paper had a woman on its staff who could be reached.

Miss Anthony was greatly beloved and respected in this city, which has been her home since 1848. She lived to see a decided change in sentiment from the time, in the winter of 1861, when she attempted to give a lecture on abolition in Corinthian hall. That lecture tour which started in Buffalo was a series of riots, but Miss Anthony never flinched. In her relation with the Rochester newspapers she never gave an item to a man when the paper had a woman on its staff who could be reached.

JEROME GETS BUSY.

Begins Two Libel Suits at $100,000
Each.

New York, March 13.—District Attorney William Travers Jerome yesterday brought two libel suits for $100,000 each, one against the New York Evening Journal and the other against the New York Evening Journal. The suits were filed in Supreme court and the complaint says that they are based on editorials which appeared in the papers named in the issues of March 8. The editorial in the Evening Journal dealt with contributions which it alleged had been made to Mr. Jerome's campaign fund during his recent contest for re-election as district attorney of New York county.

The editorial in the American was a criticism of Mr. Jerome's alleged attitude in the case of a man named Tillinghast, who confessed to jury irregularities in the interest, he claimed, of a local street railway company. Tillinghast is now serving a sentence on the strength of his confession.

INDICTMENT DISMISSED.

S. H. Abbey, a New York Law Student,
Will Not Be Prosecuted.

Kingston, N. Y., March 13.—The indictment charging Stephen H. Abbey, the New York law student, with criminal libel in connection with the anonymous publication called "Around Town," was dismissed by Judge Cantine in the court here yesterday.

When Abbey was arraigned to plead, former Corporation Counsel Augustus H. Van Buren, who was complainant in the case, made a statement in which he explained that after a full investigation he was satisfied that "Around Town" was simply the act of boys who regretted what they had done and had been prompted by no malice or design to injure anyone.

HOTEL SCREEN CASE.

Bartender of Hotel Essex, Boston, Gives $300 Bonds.

Boston, March 13.—Robert Morton, a bartender at the Hotel Essex, was arraigned in the superior court yesterday on an indictment charging a violation of the liquor law, which prohibits the maintenance of screens in places where liquor is sold or served. The indictment was found by the grand jury last week as a result of a recent crusade by District Attorney John B. Moran against the hotels which, he alleged, were selling liquor in violation of the screen law. The Hotel Essex license is made out in Morton's name. Morton pleaded not guilty yesterday and furnished $300 bail.

IN THE SCHIDLOFSKI TRIAL

Trial of Boston Man Charged With Murder of Wife Was Interrupted to Let Jury See the Place Where the Body Was Found.

Boston, Mass., March 13.—The jury in the Schidlofski case went to Belmont this morning to view the ground where the murder was committed. Schidlofski was given the privilege of accompanying the jury on its trip, but he declined to go.

The trial of the man was started before Judges Holmes and Lawton in the Middlesex county Superior court yesterday. It is alleged that he killed his wife, Marciana, whose body, badly bruised and crushed, was found on the grounds of the Arlington golf club at Belmont, July 12, 1905.

Schidlofski escaped after the crime and was later arrested near Denver, Colo., after a sensational hunt by the officers. Since his imprisonment in the Middlesex county jail Schidlofski has been examined as to his mental condition by alienists. He was pronounced to be sane, however, and it was decided to try him for murder. His counsel are Henry H. Winslow of Cambridge and Philip H. Sullivan of Braintree. The government's case is in the hands of District Attorney George A. Sanderson and the morning was occupied in selecting a jury.

Assistant District Attorney Arnold Scott outlined the case against Schidlofski, describing his arrival in this country from Russia and his marriage to the dead woman at Brockton last summer. The district attorney charged that the marriage was due entirely to Schidlofski's desire to obtain $700 which the woman had left him.

Schidlofski confessed to the officers after his arrest, according to Mr. Scott, that he went to Belmont with his wife and after an altercation with her threw her over the fence.

The government will, however, attempt to prove that Schidlofski jumped after her and after pounding her head and shoulders stabbed her several times with a knife, part of which was broken off and subsequently found embedded in the skull.

The only witness of the afternoon was Medical Examiner William D. Swan of Cambridge. Dr. Swan said that he was unable to decide whether the wounds on the neck and head were inflicted before or after the woman lost consciousness. He showed the jury the broken part of the knife which was found in the woman's skull. He described the wounds, and especially those in the head, which he said would have caused death. A small piece of the skull of the victim was shown to the jury.

Dr. Swan had not completed his testimony when the court adjourned yesterday afternoon.

THE FINAL EFFORT.

Tucker's Counsel Will Appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

Boston, March 13.—In a final effort to obtain a new trial for Charles L. Tucker, now under sentence of death for the murder of Miss Mabel Page at Weston, March 31, 1904, his counsel will today appeal to the United States Supreme court.

The last recourse open to the convicted man in the case will be tried this afternoon, when James H. Vahey, senior counsel for Tucker, will present a petition for a writ of error to Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes in Washington.

If Judge Holmes considers that a federal question is involved, and believes the Tucker case should be presented to the Supreme court of the nation, he may grant a writ of error, and thus refer the matter to the full bench. It is the privilege of Judge Holmes to deny the writ, and in that event no further appeal could be taken by Tucker's representatives.

Mr. Vahey left on the midnight train for Washington, bearing the petition. While the state Supreme court was concerned with various questions of law which arose during the trial of Tucker, only one real issue is presented in the petition which Mr. Vahey will lay before Judge Holmes. It is that Tucker was denied a fair trial.

The police acted on this authority when they entered the Tucker home at Auburndale and found the broken knife, the Russian steel pin, and the blood-stained clothing belonging to Tucker. Tucker's attorneys assert in the petition which Mr. Vahey took to Washington that in the admission of the broken knife blade, secured by a search warrant which they claim was obtained by subterfuge, the Massachusetts court was in error and permitted an infringement of the rights of the prisoner under the federal constitution.

Too Thin.

There is a representative in Congress from the West who is exceedingly thin. Being a very good-natured man, this representative always takes in good part any joking reference to his slenderness. Indeed, he is not averse to a jest himself in that connection, as is illustrated by an incident that occurred in a street car in Washington.

It appears that just as the car was rounding a curve a burly citizen lurched forward and sat in the Congressman's lap. He recovered himself quickly, and began a profuse apology, when he was interrupted by the statesman's cheery: "That's all right."

"But," added the Congressman plaintively, "I wish, my friend, that you'd tell me whether you thought I was painted on the seat."—Harper's Weekly.

128TH ANNIVERSARY
OF VT. GOVERNMENT.One Hundred and Fifty Members of the Vermont Association Gathered in Hotel Westminster in Boston
Last Night.

Boston, March 13.—One hundred and fifty loyal members of the Vermont association met at the Hotel Westminster last evening for a smoke talk to celebrate the 128th anniversary of the establishment of the state government of Vermont.

The guest of honor was the Hon. Robert D. Benedict of New York, ex-president of the Brooklyn Society of Vermonters. Mr. Benedict spoke for 40 minutes on the historical incidents associated with the legislative events of 1778, and as its close was warmly applauded and given a rising vote of thanks. Mr. Benedict's legal learning enabled him to give an exceedingly interesting address.

The smoke talk was preceded by a social half hour in the rooms of the association. Then at eight o'clock Nelson L. Sheldon, amid applause, in a speech opened the meeting, stating that the association intended through the year to celebrate events of historical importance to Vermont. It was announced that the annual smugaring off would be held April 4 and that ladies will attend the event. It was also made public that a trip to Washington is being arranged to occur April 20-29, with an attractive itinerary.

The association received last night through George M. Rosner of Boston, a native of Watford, Vt., the gift of the regimental flag of the old Second Regiment of the Vermont militia. Mr. Rosner, in his letter announcing the gift, says in part: "On May 18, 1833, my grandfather, Col. John G. Darling, was commissioned captain of the ninth company, second regiment, second brigade of Vermont militia. On this occasion he presented these flags to the regiment. When the militia was disbanded many years later, they were returned to him and have been in the possession of the family until now."

His grandfather entered the militia in 1820 as a drummer boy and rose to be colonel and was in active service when the militia disbanded in 1858."

TRACKED TO RIVER.

Woman Probably Committed Suicide at Bridleboro.

Bridleboro, March 13.—Clad only in a suit of union underwear, and stockings, Mrs. William Dustin of North Craftsbury, who had been visiting at the home of B. F. Gallup on Tyler street, apparently committed suicide yesterday by jumping into the Connecticut river at thirty rods from the Gallup residence.

Mrs. Gallup thought she heard her guest moving about in her room about 5:30 in the morning. The woman was missed about an hour later and her shoes and most of her clothing were found there. In the light room which had fallen during the night footprints evidently made by a woman in her stocking feet were found leading toward the river.

Sheriff F. W. McGuire and Selectman James F. Hooker were notified and followed the tracks to the river's edge, but found no trace of the woman and no returning footprints. Charles Cushman, an expert river man, is dragging the river, which is open at this place.

Mrs. Dustin was 28 years old and had been married about a year. She was very nervous during her visit and had consulted a physician for trouble with her head.

CONVICTS' LABOR SOLD.

A. E. Mann & Co. Will Give 60 Cents a Day for It for Five Years.

Windsor, March 13.—It was learned yesterday that A. E. Mann & Co. had secured a renewal of the contract for the convicts' labor in the prison shop at 60 cents per day for five years from May first. The old contract was at the rate of 50 cents a day. Mann & Co. will pay that rate if the prison directors will make improvements costing something like $25,000. This question will be decided later.

MARSHFIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Lucas visited at Dustin Scott's home in Calais on Saturday.

H. H. Carpenter and family were at Mrs. Lydia Benton's Sunday to visit Mrs. Carpenter's aunt, Mrs. Towne.

L. A. Tucker has the grip, and his two children have quite a high bowel trouble. A. C. Tucker has also been on the sick list.

J. Berton Pike was in Waterbury last week in the interests of the game law. He went there again today on the same business.

The friends of Mrs. B. H. Aiken extend sincere sympathy to her and her family in Mrs. Aiken's affliction, and trust that there may yet be hope of recovery. Mrs. Aiken's eyesight has been failing for some time, and now she is confined in a dark room with little hope of regaining the use of her sight.

The Good Templars will give a reception this evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Iva L. Carpenter. All Good Templars are requested to attend.

The box social so long looked for has at last appeared in the future, and Mrs. Bouldry wishes to announce that she will have it Friday evening, March 17. Make your boxes early so as not to get left. Plenty of anxious subscribers will be ready to take them.

An Epworth league has been organized in the M. E. church, with twenty-three charter members, all active members.

George Morris, son of Allen Morris, was badly burned about the head and face while building a fire in his home last week. He is running an engine in St. Johnsbury.

Another Rumor in Swanton.

Swanton, March 13.—It is rumored here that the Canadian government has issued an order to stop all sailing in Lake Champlain.

RECEPTION
FOR O'CONNELLNew Roman Catholic Archbishop Arrives in Boston

AFTER VISIT TO THE POPE

Mayor Fitzgerald Delivers an Address of Welcome—Prelate Told Newspaper Men That Pope Sent His Blessing.

Boston, Mass., March 13.—Archbishop O'Connell, formerly Bishop of Portland, arrived on the steamer Ramanian this morning. He was met by a reception committee, and Mayor Fitzgerald delivered an address of welcome, to which the Archbishop responded. The prelate met the newspaper men and told them that the Holy Father had sent his blessing to American Catholics and Protestants alike. He said Manager Supplies had been mentioned in connection with the vacant bishopric of Portland, and that in all probability some time would elapse before the appointment of his successor.

PLAINTIFF MUST PAY
FOR THE DELAY.Massachusetts Breach of Promise
Suit Goes Over to September Term of Washington County Court to File New Declaration.

Montpelier, March 13.—In Washington county court this morning Chief Judge Towell directed the plaintiff in the Massachusetts vs. Trowbridge breach of promise suit to pay $25 in witness fees and $55 in term fees because the case had to be continued as the plaintiff's attorneys were not prepared to try the case yesterday afternoon, as scheduled.

The continuance was taken after a jury had been empaneled, and the case was well under way when J. P. Lamson, of the defendant's counsel, raised the question of the validity of the declaration of the plaintiff. He questioned the right of the court to try the case as the alleged marriage contract was made and broken in Italy.

A new declaration will have to be filed by the plaintiff, and the case goes over to the September term of the court. Today the trial of the suit of Moses Fertil vs. George Peck for damages alleged to have been received on August 30, 1902 was started. Fertil was preparing a declaration before the arrival of President Roosevelt and while about his duty as a sweeper claims that Peck drove his horse onto him inflicting injuries so that he took some time in recovering. A jury was drawn this forenoon.

WEDDINGS AND SURPRISES.

In Marshfield Social Life of Last Week.

Marshfield, March 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Powers gave a reception in honor of their brother, Verne Powers, and his bride, at their home last Saturday evening. About fifty invited guests were present. The evening was very pleasantly spent. Refreshments of oysters, cake, coffee, etc., were served. The company danced before the arrival of President Roosevelt and while about his duty as a sweeper claims that Peck drove his horse onto him inflicting injuries so that he took some time in recovering. A jury was drawn this forenoon.

Charles Preston said he would let your correspondent know when he got married, and he did, for he set out the signs Thursday morning, with his compliments. This means that Charles L. Preston and Susie Phelps of Hardwick were married at the Baptist parsonage in Hardwick, last Wednesday evening by the Rev. J. D. Waldron. They are spending their honeymoon in Barre and other cities, visiting friends.

About twenty-five friends of Mrs. D. R. Tibbets surprised her last Saturday evening, it being the celebration of her thirty-ninth birthday. Friends from Barre and Williamstown were present. Music was furnished by the Pecker family. Games and dancing were indulged in until a late hour. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served. Mrs. Tibbets received several gifts, among them six oak dining chairs, table cloths, towels and a purse of money.

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Cole gave their newly married daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Morton Briggs, a surprise party last week Monday evening. The invited guests assembled at the home of R. W. Davis, and about twenty-one couples headed by Mr. and Mrs. Davis entered the Cole home about 8 o'clock. Mr. and Mrs. Briggs were quietly playing flinch in their sitting room, when the company were unexpectedly called upon. The surprise was genuine indeed. Miss Eleanor Cole, sister of the bride, with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ingalls, all of Barre, were present, and furnished music for the occasion. Refreshments of cake and ice cream were served. A very enjoyable time was reported by all.

True to His Promise.

The other boy had called Tommy a liar, and a fight had broken out. Tommy's fists were clinched and his eyes were blazing, but he stood there rapidly repenting something in himself in accordance with a long standing promise he had made to his mother. He finished saying "I'll knock the tar out of you, Dick Bunker, you piece of slob!" But, children, you should never let your angry passions get the better of you.

The other boy, however, disappeared around the corner while Tommy's lips were still moving.—Chicago Tribune.

M. J. CAREY'S FUNERAL.

Popular Graniteville Man Was Buried Yesterday.

The funeral of the late Michael J. Carey, who died on Friday last, was held yesterday morning from St. Sylvester's church in Graniteville. The Rev. Fr. Maloney officiating. Mr. Carey had been a member of the Catholic Order of Foresters, Foresters of America and the Ancient Order of Hibernians. The members of each society attended the funeral in a body. The long line of sorrowing friends who accompanied the remains to their last resting place in the Catholic cemetery in Barre attested the esteem in which he was held.

The sincere sympathy of the whole community goes out to the bereaved wife and family. The bearers were Robert O'Herrin, M. E. Spence, John Finnegan, D. W. McLean, L. M. Flynn and P. J. Finnegan.

The floral offerings were as follows: Pillow, family; pillow, Patrick and Thomas Carey; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sheridan and family; standing cross, C. O. F.; harp, A. O. H.; wreath, F. of A.; white roses, W. C. O. F.; carnations, L. O. T. M.; pink carnations and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Miles; pink carnations and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Foster; calla lilies and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. Matt Haley; cross of white and pink roses and carnations, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Sutor; pink carnations and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Connelley; white, pink and red carnations, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. McLean; hyacinths and ferns, P. F. McCarthy; calla lilies, pink carnations and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Eager; mixed bouquet, Mr. and Mrs. Allen McCallan; roses, carnations and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Keefe; white carnations, hyacinths and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morrison; hyacinths and ferns, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Riley; calla lilies and ferns, Mrs. H. Garvey; cross of white carnations and roses, Jas. and Thos. Brady.

35 CANDIDATES.

For the Goddard Base Ball Team This Spring.

Base ball cage practice has begun at the seminary under the direction of Prof. Cannell. The number of candidates to be tried out this spring is a record breaker for the school. There are thirty-five who will try for the team and there is also especially good material to pick a team from so that the prospects are good for one of the strongest teams this spring that Goddard has had for some time. Charles Knapp will be one of the candidates for the pitcher's box and it is expected that a new student will enter school next term who has had considerable experience in the box. Jimmie, who caught for Goddard last fall in the exhibition games against the Intercity, will probably be Goddard's catcher this spring.

WERE EASY WITH BOY.

William Woods Goes to House of Correction for 30 Days.

William Woods, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of breaking into Mitchell Davis' store and for petty larceny, was brought into city court this morning and on the strength of the boy's story that he did not go into the store but stood watch while another boy did the stealing the charge against him was changed to that of receiving stolen property. The boy was found guilty and sentenced to the house of correction at Rutland for not less than thirty nor more than thirty-five days. He said that the boy who did the stealing was named Carl Burt and that the latter left the city on the night train Sunday night.

A DELIGHTFUL AFTERNOON.

Whist and Then Domestic Science for the Tourist Club.

The Ladies' Tourist club held a domestic science afternoon at the home of Mrs. B. F. Anker yesterday at which nearly every member was present and all had a most enjoyable time. The first part of the afternoon was taken up with whist, Mrs. Frank Robinson winning the first prize. Following the whist the domestic science part of the meeting began with a delightful dinner was served. The ladies found their places at a table by picking out their names which were very cleverly represented in characters on the menu cards. The ladies of the committee for the afternoon were Mrs. Drown, Mrs. Chandler, Mrs. Anker and Mrs. Abbott.

WOMAN IS HELD.

Mrs. Jennie Swan Charged With Illegal
Sale of Liquor.

Jeffersonville, March 13.—At a hearing held here Mrs. Jennie Swan, landlady of the hotel at Cambridge Junction, was ordered held on the charge of selling liquor illegally. Bail was fixed at $500 and was furnished. The case will come up at the June term of Lamoille county court.

Wanted to Get Rid of Him.

A number of politicians in Washington were once discussing the good and bad points of various statesmen with reference to their attitude toward their friends and enemies, when Senator Keen was reminded of an instance in the career of the late Senator Sewell, of New Jersey.

It appears that Sewell had been a generous friend and an equally good hater, as was evidenced by his treatment of a Col. Sevier, who, it seems, had dared to dispute Sewell's supremacy in Jersey politics. At one time Sevier imagined he had made his peace with Sewell and ventured to ask a favor of his old enemy—something in the way of a pass to Chicago. The pass came by return mail.

The next day at the office of the railroad, of which the Senator was an officer, Sevier thanked him for the courtesy; but as he did so he called attention to the fact that there was no provision made in the pass for the return trip East. "Probably an inadvertence on the part of the clerk that made it out," he observed.

"Lark nothing," roared Sewell. "I'll have you know, Sevier, that I myself filled out that pass. I'm willing to send you to Chicago, but I'll be damned if I'll help you get back to Jersey!"—Harper's Weekly.

TWO FAILED
TO GET INAldermen Reject Two of Mayor's Appointments

AND ACCEPT THE OTHERS

G. A. Reed for City Engineer and H. W.
Scott for Assessor Were Turned Down—J. Ward Carver Is New City Attorney.

Mayor Barclay got several appointments through the board of aldermen last night, but failed in two cases. The failure were when he named George A. Reed to succeed City Engineer Charles R. Allen, Jr., and H. W. Scott to become assessor in place of L. R. Hutchinson, resigned. The appointment of a new man in the engineering department was not a surprise, as it had been rumored for several weeks that the mayor was desirous of a change. The aldermen didn't agree with him by a vote of three to three. It is understood that he contemplates at least one other change. Mr. Scott was turned down for assessor by a vote of four to two.

J. Ward Carver passed through as city attorney by a vote of four to two, succeeding City Attorney John W. Gordon, who has held the office for several years. Mr. Carver is a young man, a graduate of Goddard seminary, studied law in J. W. Gordon's office, was admitted to the bar last fall, and is at present a member of the firm of Scott & Carver. He has served as grand juror.

E. R. Davis and John E. Smith sailed into the office of grand juror without a dissenting vote, while E. M. Taylor had one vote against him for the same position. Other appointments, including Driver of the book and ladder truck, to succeed John Henry, M. W. Kendall, confirmed unanimously; F. W. Howland, trustee of public money, confirmed unanimously; Alexander J. Stewart, inspector of buildings, confirmed, four to two; hours of health, Dr. J. W. Jackson, William Jackson and John Longhead, unanimously confirmed.

That was all the business at the board of aldermen meeting, but prior to this the city council spent two hours or more, mainly in the consideration of schedule of city water rates. There is no great change from last year, except that stated prices are to be charged for the use of water in granite sheds instead of having special arrangements as during the past. For instance, the city will charge 80 cents per horse power for first 100 horse power boilers and 50 cents for each extra horse power. For wheels 5, and for each additional wheel $6; grind stones $1 each; lathe $5; gang saws $5. In private houses of one family the charge shall not exceed $25 a year, that to include the use of hose. During April 15 to October 15 hours of health, Dr. J. W. Jackson, William Jackson and John Longhead, unanimously confirmed.

The minimum meter rate for three months was changed from $2.50 to $1.50. In case of break in spring water systems, city water can be used for a neighbor's faucet for 24 hours, provided notice is given the water superintendent. Each user of city water will be provided with the new bill of rates.

George W. Mann asked permission to open up Pike, Bassett and Foster streets and the street committee was authorized to investigate and report.

The report on the city's liability for damages done to the Presbyterian church, caused by the breaking of a hydrant, was presented by the city attorney. He cited a similar case in West Rutland, in which a man slipped on some ice caused by the breaking of and flooding from a hydrant. The man sued the town, and the Supreme court held that the town was not liable. The case, reported Mr. Gordon, is similar to the one in this city. Alderman Milne thought the church had heavy expenses and that the city should help out, but the report was accepted, Alderman Milne voting with the majority.

The council accepted the resignation of John Henry, driver of the book and ladder truck in the fire department, accepted the bond of Alderman Campbell and also the report of Chief of Police Brown for the month of February. Chief Brown reported eleven arrests, of which six were for intoxication.
